What Is A Function?

"Code On Demand"

You define a function and its code ahead of time → Only once a function is "called", the code inside of it executes

Functions can (but don't have to) take input (parameters) and produce output (return values)